under Sections 147, 148, 149, 341, 323, 324, 307, 379, 504 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code.

The prosecution case, in brief, is that informant, who is the husband of the Mukhiya had sustained injury along with other victim by the accused persons named in the F.I.R. in course distribution of flood relief material.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits that though the petitioner is named in the F.I.R., but no specific allegation of assault has been alleged against the petitioner. The incident took place as a result of snatching of relief material from the persons, who were distributing at the place of occurrence in which the informant also sustained injury. The informant is the husband of the Mukhiya. There is general and omnibus allegation against the petitioner. The petitioner is in custody since 12.01.2022.

Learned A.P.P. for the State has opposed the prayer for grant of bail to the petitioner.

Considering the aforementioned facts and circumstances of the case, informant has sustained only one injury which was caused by co-accused Ambika Yadav, the Doctor who examined him has found the injury to be grievous in nature, the petitioner has remained in custody since 12.01.2022, the petitioner, above named, is directed to be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 25000/- (Rs.
