ORAL ORDER

(Per: HONOURABLE MR JUSTICE CHAKRADHARI SHARAN SINGH)

2 29-03-2022 From perusal of the pleadings and other materials on record, it is evident that the real dispute in the present writ application is between the petitioners, on the one hand and private respondent No 4, on the other. The nature of dispute, which is being raised in the present writ petition, cannot be gone into in a proceeding under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

This application is, accordingly, dismissed.

The petitioners shall be at liberty to approach appropriate Court for the relief which they are seeking in the present writ application.
