As per prosecution case, three unknown miscreants intercepted the informant and looted away his mobile phone, a bag containing Rs. 36,700/-, passbook, ATM Card, Cheque book

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the

and on the basis of his inculpatory confessional statement, he has been remanded in the present case. Learned counsel next submits that no looted article and or incriminating material has been recovered from the possession of the petitioner and he has not been put on test identification parade by the police. Except inculpatory confessional statement made before the police, no other material has come against the petitioner during course of investigation.

He next submits that petitioner is in custody since 31.08.2020 and the charge-sheet has been submitted in the matter.

Regards being had to the submissions made by the parties and taking into consideration the material on record and the fact that no looted article and or incriminating material has been recovered from the possession of the petitioner, except his confessional statement no other material has come against the petitioner during course of investigation, petitioner is in custody since 31.08.2020 and the charge-sheet has been submitted in the matter, I am inclined to grant regular bail to the petitioner subject to the condition that petitioner will be well represented on each and every date in the trial and if he fails to do so on two consecutive dates, his bail bonds will be liable to be cancelled.
