ORAL ORDER

(Per: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJAN GUPTA)

7 21-01-2022 The matter has been heard via video conferencing.

A perusal of the agreement shows that it contains an arbitration clause therein. All factual disputes can be gone into under the arbitration if invoked by any party.

We, thus, do not find any ground to interfere in writ jurisdiction. Parties are at liberty to invoke the arbitration clause. We make it clear that in case the arbitration clause is invoked, the arbitrator shall endeavour to decide the dispute in a fixed time frame in any case not later than nine months.

The petition stands disposed off.
