CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJEEV RANJAN PRASAD
ORAL ORDER

4 02-11-2022 No one appears for the petitioner to press this application. Mr. Kumar Shanu, learned AC to AG appears for the State.

Petitioner in the present case is seeking a direction to the official respondents to protect the life and liberty of the petitioner from respondent second set.

In the writ application, certain allegations have been made against the private respondents but this Court would not go into the merit of the allegations in the present proceeding. It appears that the cases were lodged in the year 2009 and 2012. It appears from the statements made in the writ application that so far as Alamganj P.S. Case No. 228 of 2012 is concerned, in the said case the I.O. is said to have filed a final form no. 228 of 2012 showing that it is a case of mistake of fact and the said final form has been accepted by the learned A.C.J.M., Patna City vide order dated 16.06.2015 (Annexure '13').

It further appears that the parties are also litigating in title suit no. 312 of 2012.

In the given facts and circumstances of the case, without going into the merit of the rival allegations, this Court is of the considered opinion that the writ application may be disposed of giving liberty to the petitioner to seek her remedy before the Senior Superintendent of Police, Patna (Respondent No. 3) who may, in case, any application is filed seeking protection to life and liberty of the petitioner, consider the veracity of the same and take appropriate steps within a reasonable time.

This application stands disposed of accordingly.
