ORAL ORDER

2 14-11-2022 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned
A.P.P. for the State.

Let the defect(s), if any, be removed within a period of four weeks.

The petitioners apprehend their arrest in a case
registered for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 149, 341, 323, 307, 504 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners are persons with clean antecedent.

The informant alleges that on account of dispute relating to connecting house pipe for drainage the accused persons including the petitioners came and assaulted him with lathi, danda and farsa causing injury on his head and right hand. Kiran Devi assaulted Renu Devi by handle of tangi injuring her hand.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that from perusal of the allegation as alleged in the FIR, it would manifest that the alleged occurrence took place on a trivial issue. It is further submitted that the allegation of assault is general and omnibus in nature. It is next submitted that even injuries suffered by the injured are simple in nature which is Annexure-2 to the anticipatory bail application. It is also submitted that admittedly petitioners are not the criminals nor the blow is alleged to have been repeated.

Learned A.P.P. for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners.

Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, the petitioners above-named, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned court below where the case is pending/successor court in connection with
