ORAL ORDER

2 27-09-2022 Learned counsel for the petitioner is permitted to remove defect (s), as pointed out by the office, if any, within a period of four weeks on resumption of physical mode.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of regular bail in a case registered under sections 302, 120B and 201 read with 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per the prosecution case, the son of the informant worked as a driver for the petitioner on a monthly pay of Rs. 7,000/- but the petitioner never paid him completely and on being asked for money, the petitioner used to make excuses. Later, the son of the informant died in a car accident and the petitioner promised to pay Rs. 10 Lakhs as compensation but he did not give the money and the informant realised that the petitioner killed his son and gave it a colour of an accident for not paying the dues money.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case. Nothing has been recovered from the conscious possession of the petitioner. The deceased actually met with an accident and died for which Mahamadpur P.S. Case No. 287 of 2020 dated 24.12.2020 was lodged. After lapse about one year the present case has been lodged against the petitioner on 01.11.2021. The petitioner is accused in two other criminal cases as stated in para 3 of the bail petition which are related to the Excise Act. The petitioner is in custody since 14.02.2022.

Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the bail petition of the petitioner.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case as well as the nature of allegation, the petitioner above-named, is directed to be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail-bond of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Court below, Gopalganj in connection with Mohammadpur P.S. Case No. 216 of 2021.

The application stands allowed.
