ORAL ORDER

4 04-07-2022 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned
APP for the State.

The instant application for anticipatory bail has been filed by the petitioners apprehending their arrest in connection with Maranchi P.S. Case no. 152 of 2020 instituted for the offence punishable under Sections 341, 323, 307, 504 and 506/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per allegation in the FIR, it is a case of assaulting to the informant, his mother and his children by the accused persons including the petitioners due to which they sustained injuries.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners has submitted that petitioners are innocent and have committed no offence. They have been falsely implicated in this case. General and omnibus allegations have been levelled against them. Only one injury report in respect of Parwati Devi is available in the case diary. She has sustained simple injury. No other injury report is available on record. There is case and counter case. Both parties are close agnates. FIR has been lodged after a delay of three days without any explanation, which falsify the prosecution story.

Learned APP appearing for the State has opposed the prayer of Bail.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and in the facts and circumstances of the case as stated above, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioners on bail. The petitioners are directed to surrender in the Court below within a period of four weeks from today and in the event of their arrest or surrender in connection with Maranchi P.S. Case no. 152 of 2020, they will be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate,

1st Class, Barh, Patna subject to the conditions as laid down under section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
