CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANJANI KUMAR SHARAN
ORAL ORDER

2 15-04-2022 Heard the parties through virtual court proceedings.

Learned counsel for the petitioner undertakes to remove the defects within four weeks of resumption of normal court proceedings. In the eventuality of non-removal of defects within stipulated period, office will place the matter before the Bench.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 379, 411, 420 of the IPC.

Allegedly, one truck was seized with overloaded sand being transported illegally for sale. It is alleged that the petitioner is the driver of the said vehicle, who fled away from the spot.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that petitioner is quite innocent and has committed no offence. He has been falsely implicated in this case. Allegation against the petitioner is that he being the driver of the truck is involved in illegal transportation of minerals. It is further submitted that the owner of the truck has been enlarged on anticipatory bail by the court below itself. Petitioner has one criminal antecedent.

Learned APP for the State opposed the prayer for bail by submitting that the petitioner has one antecedent of similar nature of offence.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, let the above named petitioner, be released on bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned court below where the case is pending/Successor Court in connection with Daudnagar P.S. Case No.264 of 2021, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.

However, petitioner undertakes to not get involved in any similar nature of offence. In the event, he is named in any other similar nature of offence, the bail bond of the petitioner shall be cancelled by the learned court below.
