APP for the State.

Learned counsel for the petitioner undertakes to remove the defects within three weeks. In the eventuality of non-removal of defects within undertaken period, the office will place the matter before the Bench.

The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 272, 273 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 30(a) of the Bihar Prohibition and Excise Act.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He submits that there is no recovery from the conscious possession of the petitioner rather 27 liters of country made liquor is said to have recovered from the house of the petitioner.

He submits that the apprehended person disclosed the name of the petitioner. He further submits that petitioner has no criminal antecedent as stated in para-3 of the bail application.

Considering the facts and circumstance of the case and the fact that the said illicit liquor has been recovered from the house of the petitioner, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail.
