CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DR. ANSHUMAN
ORAL ORDER

3 25-11-2022 Upon repeated call no one appeared on behalf of the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the State appeared.

It has been submitted by the learned counsel of the State that in the present case, the offences of Excise Act in addition to outraging the modesty of a minor girl as well as POCSO Act are there.

Learned counsel for the State submits that from the content of the F.I.R., it transpires that the petitioner after taking wine, tried to outrage the modesty of a minor girl aged about 11 years, who was coming from school after attending her classes.

Case diary is present in the record, in which the allegation was supported by the witness and the statement of Section 164 of Cr.P.C. has also been annexed in this case, in which the victim girl has supported the allegation made in the F.I.R.

In the present facts and circumstances of this case and upon going through the F.I.R. and contents of the allegation made in the case diary and the statement made under Section 164 of Cr.P.C., I am not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, therefore, the bail application is hereby rejected.
