ORAL ORDER

3 25-08-2022 Heard the parties.

It has been submitted by learned counsel for the opposite parties that they have started making payment but bank accounts of some of the petitioners are wanting and, therefore payment is being delayed. He, therefore, submits that the order of this Court has been complied.

In this view of the matter, the application is disposed of.

However, if the petitioners have any grievance after some time then they may file a fresh application for revival of the contempt application.
