Appearance :

For the Petitioner/s : Dr. Manoj Kumar, Advocate

For the Opposite Party/s : Mr. Navin Kumar Pandey, APP

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJIV ROY

ORAL ORDER

2 11-10-2022 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

Let the defect(s), if any, as pointed out by the office, be removed within four weeks.

The case is registered under sections 302, 201/34 of the Indian Penal Code, in connection with Konch P.S. Case
No. 215 of 2021.

The allegation against the petitioner who is the husband of the deceased is that after the marriage he was regularly demanding a motorcycle and Rs. 1 lakh as dowry. On the fateful day, the informant got knowledge that she is ill and later came to know that she is dead. When he reached the place of her in-laws, he came to know that mortal remains have already been consigned to flames.

The petitioner being the husband of the deceased cannot exonerate himself from the alleged death of his wife.

In view of the above facts, this Court does not find any merit in the bail application and the same is accordingly rejected.

The Trial Court is directed to expedite the trial and conclude the same preferably within a period of one year.
