CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHUTOSH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

3 12-01-2022 Heard Mr. Abdul Mannan Khan, learned

Advocate for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.

By order dated 25.01.2021, the prayer for bail of the petitioner was rejected. However, taking into account that the petitioner is in custody since 03.08.2019, a direction was issued to the Court below to conclude the trial as expeditiously as possible. The petitioner was further directed to approach the Trial Court, in case there was no substantial progress in trial within the period of next six months, for grant of bail but only when such delay would not be attributable to the petitioner.

It appears from the impugned order that all the five prosecution witnesses have been examined but the case is pending trial for the examination of defence witnesses. Now it is up to the petitioner to have the case concluded after offering all the witnesses on its behalf.

In any view of the matter, if no delay is caused by or on behalf of the petitioner, the trial ought to be concluded within the next three months.

If the delay is not on account of the petitioner in conclusion of trial, the petitioner would have the liberty to approach this Court again.

The petition stands disposed off, accordingly.
