A.P.P. for the State.

The petitioners apprehend their arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 447, 341, 323, 307, 504 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

his hand.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners are persons with clean antecedent. Learned counsel further submits that petitioners have been falsely implicated in the present case, it is next submitted that the informant, very cleverly, has alleged with precision and certainty that each of the accused persons assaulted him on his body parts, it is also submitted that the injuries are simple in nature, as would be evident from Annexure 3 to the anticipatory bail application, which amply demonstrates that petitioners never had any intention of committing a serious occurrence, it is also submitted that at the cost of repetition that petitioners are persons with clean antecedent and are not criminals and will cooperate in the investigation and will present themselves as and when required by the Investigating Officer of the case.

Learned A.P.P. for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners.

Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, the petitioners above-named, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned trial court within a period of six weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/-
