Learned counsel for the petitioner undertakes to remove the defects, if any, within three weeks.

The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 304B and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He submits that there is no specific overt act against the petitioner. He submits that the petitioner is the husband of the deceased and he has been made accused by the informant in order to escape the liability. He further submits that petitioner has no criminal antecedent as stated in para-3 of this

Learned APP for the State opposes the prayer for bail.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. Accordingly, his prayer for anticipatory bail is rejected in connection with Khagaul P.S. Case No. 109 of 2022.

However, if the petitioner surrenders before the learned court below within a period of six weeks from today and prays for regular bail, the same shall be considered by the learned court below on the same day without being prejudiced by this order.
