The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 406, 409, 420 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

manipulated, it is next submitted that the allegation of defalcation is against the Chairman including the petitioner.

Learned A.P.P. for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner and submits that money was allotted to the Pacs for purchasing paddy from the farmers but it appears that the petitioner along with the Chairman siphoned off the said amount for their own personal use.

Learned counsel for the petitioner rebuts the submission of the learned A.P.P and submits that petitioner is innocent and will cooperate in the investigation and will present himself as and when required by the Investigating Officer of the case. It is also submitted that the purpose of arrest is not to punish but to ensure that investigation is not hampered.

Learned Trial Court is directed to send a copy of this Order to the concerned P.S.

Further, if the investigating Officer after investigation submits charge sheet against the petitioner, then the present anticipatory bail order shall lose its effect.
