The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 363,366A of IPC.

The prosecution case, in short, is that on 17.02.2022, the informant suspected that Prasadi @ Prasadi Kumar and petitioner conspired and kidnapped his minor daughter and they can do something wrong with her.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has clean antecedent. He has falsely been implicated in the present case. In fact the petitioner is father of the co-accused namely Prasadi @ Prasadi Kumar. Further submits that the victim was recovered and her statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C. was recorded in which she has categorically stated that she went with co-accused Prasadi @ Prasadi Kumar to Delhi and the petitioner has no concern at all and in fact the petitioner is father of the co-accused so the petitioner has falsely been implicated in the present case and the co-accused namely Prasadi @ Prasadi Kumar has been granted bail by the learned court below itself.

(2) If the petitioner tampers with the evidence or the witnesses, in that case, the prosecution will be at liberty to move for cancellation of bail.

And, further condition that the court below shall verify the criminal antecedent of the petitioner and in case at any stage, it is found that the petitioner has concealed his criminal antecedent, the court below shall take step for cancellation of bail bond of the petitioner. However, the acceptance of bail bonds in terms of the above-mentioned order shall not be delayed for purpose of or in the name of verification.
