CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJIV ROY
ORAL ORDER

2 04-04-2022 Heard counsel for the parties.

The petitioner is in custody in connection with Turkauliya (Raghunathpur O.P.) P.S. Case No. 481 of 2018 lodged on 29.07.2018.

As per allegation on information that the petitioner
who is accused in more than dozen of cases was hiding in Delhi, the police party went to National Capital and with the help of Delhi police visited Mahipalpur area where the petitioner was hiding. As they waited for the petitioner entire night, in the morning at 5:45 A.M., the police party saw three persons moving on the road and the police party intercepted them. As they tried to escape from the place, three were apprehended and the informant who is Police Officer immediately identified this petitioner as Rajan Sahni. With his permission, location was searched and besides arms and ammunition more than one kg. “Charas” was recovered. The accused were arrested and it was in this circumstance that the present FIR came to be lodged.

As per para-3 of the bail application, the petitioner is accused in 18 criminal cases and the police with great effort was finally able to arrest him.

In the aforesaid circumstances, this Court is not inclined to grant the petitioner the privilege of bail which is accordingly rejected. However, the Trial Court is directed to conclude the trial expeditiously.
