CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SANDEEP KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

3 13-04-2022 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Learned counsel for the petitioner is permitted to remove defect(s), as pointed out by the office, if any, within a period of four weeks from today.

This application for anticipatory bail arises out of L.N.M.U. P.S. Case No. 221 of 2021 for the offence punishable under Section 22(b) of the N.D.P.S. Act.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the seized goods do not belong to the petitioner and the petitioner has clean antecedent.

During the investigation, the police has suspected that the petitioner is the person who has booked schedule H drugs in his name.

Considering the aforesaid facts, this is not a fit case for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this anticipatory bail application is dismissed.

If the petitioner surrenders in the Court below within a period of four weeks from today and seeks regular bail, his application for regular bail shall be considered by the learned Court below on its own merit without being prejudiced by rejection of present application for grant of anticipatory bail.
