The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of regular bail in a case registered under sections 307, 324 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code and section 27 of the Arms Act.

As per the prosecution case, the petitioner is said to have fired two shots from his pistol one of which hit the informant in his stomach.

While the occurrence is alleged to have taken place on 25.8.2020 and the informant was treated at the Primary Health Centre, for no explanation the fardbeyan is registered after a delay of four days ie on 29.8.2020. There has been dispute between the parties with respect to a vacant land which falls behind the houses of both the petitioner and the informant. The petitioner was at his place of posting where his attendance was also marked. He is in custody since 26.6.2021 and investigation in the case has concluded.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the facts of the case including the allegation against the petitioner of having fired on the informant together with the allegations being confirmed from the injury report wherein grievous injury caused by firearm was found in the abdomen of the informant, the Court is not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail and the application is rejected.
