ORAL ORDER

2 23-11-2022 Let the defect(s), as pointed out by the office, be removed within a period of four weeks from today.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
A.P.P. for the State.

The petitioner seeks bail in connection with Tisiauta
P.S. Case No. 133/2021 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 498(A), 494, 504/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The petitioner is husband of Opposite Party No.2 and he is ready to keep Opposite Party No.2 with full honour and dignity.

Without going into the merits of the matter, let the petitioner above named be released on provisional bail for a period of six months on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/-

(Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate-1st Class, Vaishali at Hajipur in connection with Tisiauta P.S. Case No. 133/2021.

The court below is directed to make suitable effort for the purpose of conciliation between the parties.

The petitioner and the Opposite Party No.2 would have the opportunity to work out an amicable resolution of the issue.

If an amicable resolution is worked out within six months, petitioner would be entitled to confirmation of his provisional bail.

If the petitioner co-operates in the process of mediation or conciliation then the provisional bail of the petitioner shall be confirmed by the concerned court itself.

If the attitude of complainant/opposite party no.2 is not found positive in that situation the provisional bail of the petitioner shall be confirmed by learned trial court itself.

If, on the other hand, the issue is not resolved between the parties, the Court below, needless to say, would be well within its jurisdiction to exercise its judicial discretion and pass appropriate orders, which may include cancellation of the petitioner’s provisional bail.

This application stands disposed of in the aforesaid terms.
