CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SHAILENDRA SINGH
ORAL ORDER

3 29-11-2022 The learned counsel for the petitioner is directed to remove all the defects pointed out by the Stamp Reporter within one month.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned APP for the State.

Petitioner seeks regular bail in connection with Bela
P.S. Case No. 118 of 2021 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 304(B) and 201/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per the prosecution, the informant's daughter was murdered by this petitioner along with other co-accused persons on the alleged date and time for a dowry demand made by the deceased's husband and his family members.

The main submissions advanced by learned counsel
Mr. Ayush Kumar appearing for the petitioner are that the petitioner is a neighbour of the husband of the deceased, he and his brother have been implicated in this case on account of having good relation with the husband of the deceased and the petitioner has been languishing in jail since 22.12.2021. Further submission is that the petitioner and his brother and entire male members of his family have been made accused in this case and the petitioner has fair and clean antecedent.

Learned APP Mr. Harendra Prasad appearing for the State has opposed the bail prayer.

Heard both the sides and perused the FIR. The petitioner is not stated to be a relative of the husband of the deceased and allegation made in the FIR is general and omnibus against him and seven named and ten to fifteen unknown persons were alleged to have helped the main accused in disappearing the dead body of the deceased but the said allegation is not specific to any of them including the petitioner. Considering these facts as well as petitioner's custody period and above submissions and the stage of his case, in the opinion of this Court the petitioner deserves to a lenient approach of this Court. Accordingly, let the petitioner be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/-(Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the Court concerned in connection with Bela P.S. Case No. 118 of 2021.
