CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SATYAVRAT VERMA

ORAL ORDER

2 06-07-2022 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.

The petitioner seeks bail in anticipation of his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 406 and 420 of the Indian Penal Code.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is a person with clean antecedent and the informant alleges that two months earlier, the petitioner along with two other accused persons came to his place and bought cereals worth Rs.71,000/- from the informant and paid only Rs.10,000/- in cash with an assurance that the rest amount will be paid, but now, the accused persons including the petitioner is refusing to pay the remaining amount as aforesaid and has also threatened the informant that he will be killed. It is next alleged that the petitioner and the accused persons have also duped the other farmers as detailed in the F.I.R.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. The F.I.R.

does not even remotely suggest that as to when the payment was made, what was the amount of paddy, which was purchased by the petitioner. It is next submitted that petitioner is a person with clean antecedent and if the petitioner duped any other farmers, then they would have filed cases against him, but no such case has ever been filed against the petitioner.

Learned A.P.P. opposes the bail application.

Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner, above-named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks, is directed to be released on bail on his furnishing bail-bonds in the sum of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Court below where the case is pending in connection with Guraru P. S. Case No.24 of 2021, subject to the conditions laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.

The application stands allowed.
