committed any offence in the manner alleged. He further submits that the vehicle, in question, is a commercial vehicle, being plied by its driver on hire basis and the petitioner, being the owner of the tempo, in question, was not aware about the illicit liquor being transported in his tempo by the driver of the tempo. He further submits that the petitioner is the owner of the vehicle, in question, and the driver of the vehicle, namely, Chandan Kumar, has been granted bail by co-ordinate Bench of this Court, vide order, passed in Criminal Misc.
