ORAL ORDER

4 02-08-2022 The petitioner in the present case is aggrieved by and dissatisfied with the judgment dated 24.03.2018 passed by learned Additional Sessions Judge-V, Bhagalpur in Cr. Appeal No. 15 of 2015 whereby and whereunder the learned Additional Sessions Judge has refused to interfere with the judgment of the learned trial court.

On perusal of the impugned judgment, it appears that the learned court below has rejected the contention of the complainant-appellant that the accused persons-respondents were liable to be convicted under Sections 147 and 353 of the IPC. The appellate court has found that no charge was framed under Sections 147 and 354 of the IPC and this was never agitated by the complainant-appellant in accordance with the provision of 216(1) Cr.P.C. at any stage of the trial.

Learned appellate court has taken a correct view of the matter on the basis of the materials available on the record, hence, this Court finds no reason to interfere with the impugned judgment.

The revision application is dismissed accordingly.
