CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJEEV RANJAN PRASAD ORAL ORDER

4 31-08-2022 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner. Despite valid service of notice on opposite party no.2, he has not entered appearance.

Petitioner in this case is aggrieved by and dissatisfied with the order dated 18.05.2018 passed by learned Sessions Judge, Kaimur at Bhabua in Cr.Revision No.239 of 2017 whereby and whereunder the learned Sessions Judge has been pleased to set aside the order dated 05.12.2017 passed by the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-V at Bhabua in connection with Bhagwanpur P.S. Case No.109 of 2017.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner and daughter of opposite party no.2 are living as husband and wife and they have been blessed with a child. It is, thus, submitted that the order of the learned Sessions Judge has not been implemented. In terms of the order of the learned Sessions Judge, the learned Magistrate has not passed any other or further order. With the efflux of time even as per her educational certificate the daughter of the informant has attained majority and she can take her own decision.

Since there is no opposition to this application and this Court has been informed that the petitioner and daughter of the informant are living together and pursuant to the order of the learned Sessions Judge, Kaimur at Bhabua no further order has been passed by the learned Magistrate, this Court finds no reason to proceed with this revision application. It is disposed of as having become infructuous.
