The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of regular bail in a case registered under sections 341, 323, 307, 379, 504 and 506 read with 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per the prosecution case, the petitioner and the co-accused hurled bricks on the informant's wife's head with the intent to kill, causing severe injuries. It is further alleged that the co-accused Lalita Devi also snatched Rs. 1,000/- cash and a silver chain from the informant's wife. When the informant came to rescue, the accused persons caught him too, but he started shouting and then nearby people came and saved the informant and his wife.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case. Learned counsel further submitted that there was no intention to kill the informant's wife. Nothing has been recovered from the conscious possession of the petitioner. The petitioner has clean antecedent as stated at para 3 of the bail petition. The petitioner is in custody since 08.05.2022.

Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the bail petition of the petitioner by submitting that as per the medical report, the injury is grievous in nature.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, as well as the period of detention, the petitioner above-named, is directed to be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail-bond of Rs. 20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Katihar, in connection with Aajam Nagar P.S.
