ORAL ORDER

3 09-05-2022 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of regular bail in a case registered under section 302 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per the prosecution case, the petitioner is said to have thrown the husband of the informant on ground and of having strangled him with his hands.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the case. No motive has been given in the F.I.R. for the alleged occurrence. The petitioner is in custody since 8.8.2020 and investigation in the case has concluded.

Heard learned A.P.P. for the State.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the direct allegation against the petitioner of having strangled the husband of the informant together with the contents of the post-mortem report which shows that the deceased died due to asphyxia as a result of ante-mortem strangulation, the Court is not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail and the application is rejected.
