The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of regular bail in a case registered under sections 420, 467 and 468 of the Indian Penal Code and sections 8, 20(6) (d)(ii)(c), 25 and 23 of the NDPS Act.

As per the prosecution case, on the vehicle in question being stopped for search, it is stated that accused persons made an attempt to escape but the petitioner was chased and caught. One of the the accused escaped. On search 190 kgs of ganja was recovered from the vehicle.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the case as a result of altercation between the driver and the police. No

The application for bail is opposed by learned counsel for the Union of India.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the recovery of 190 kgs of ganja from the vehicle owned by the petitioner and the petitioner having been caught at the place of occurrence, the Court is not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail and the application is rejected.
