ORAL ORDER

2 06-06-2022 Learned counsel for the petitioner is permitted to remove defect(s), as pointed out by the office, if any, within a period of four weeks from today.

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The petitioner seeks anticipatory bail in connection with Akbarnagar P.S. Case No.-139/2020, registered for the offences under Sections 384 and 386/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per prosecution story the accused persons including the petitioner intercepted the truck of the informant on the point of pistol and demanded Rs. 6000/- and when the informant objected then the accused persons started assaulting him and his Khalasi and snatched away Rs. 10,000/- from his pocket.

Learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail by submitting that petitioner is named in the F.I.R. with specific allegation.

Heard both the sides and perused the F.I.R.

The allegation against the petitioner is serious in nature which relates to loot and as per learned Additional Public Prosecutor the case is under investigation. There are two other criminal cases pending against the petitioner. In the light of these facts, the petitioner does not deserve anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application of the petitioner stands rejected.
