ORAL ORDER

4 18-01-2022 Heard learned Counsel for the petitioners, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State and learned counsel for the informant, through Video Conferencing.

This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Mashrakh Police Station Case No. 399 of 2020, disclosing offences under Sections 341, 307, 323, 324, 354 (B), 504, 506/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

At the very outset, the learned counsel for the petitioner prays for withdrawal of anticipatory bail application of petitioner No.2.

Permitted to be withdrawn.

So far as petitioner Nos.1 and 3 are concerned, there is general and omnibus allegations of assault against them and the corresponding injuries have been found simple in nature.

The learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the present case is outcome of an earlier dispute between the parties.

The learned counsel for the informant has vehemently opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner Nos. 1 and 3 and he has submitted that one person has suffered stab injury and other injured had sustained injury, though it may be simple but the offence cannot be mitigated because of this.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, the application for anticipatory bail of petitioner Nos. 1 and 3 is allowed.

Let the petitioner No.1 and 3, named above, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the Court below within eight weeks, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate, Ist Class, Saran at Chhapra, in connection with Mashrakh Police Station Case No. 399 of 2020, subject to the condition laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
