CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MADHURESH PRASAD
ORAL ORDER

5 12-12-2022 The writ petition has been filed seeking appointment on compassionate ground in view of demise of the petitioner's mother in harness while working as Messenger on 11.01.2017.

The respondents have rejected the claim of the petitioner.

It is the stand of the respondents that the service book of the petitioner's mother contained a record of petitioner's father's name as Dina Ram. The same has subsequently been overwritten in hand and in place of Dina Ram, the same has been made Dinesh Ram.

The petitioner, however, claims to be son of "Dinesh Singh". The respondents have therefore held that being son of Dinesh Singh, the petitioner's claim cannot be considered for compassionate appointment as husband of the deceased employee (petitioner's mother) has got the name of Dinesh Ram recorded in her service book. In view of this variance in the name of the petitioner's father (his mother's husband), they are unable to process the claim of the petitioner in his favour.

This Court does not find infirmity in the said decision of the respondent-authorities. This Court does not find the petitioner's claim to be enforceable by way of any direction in writ jurisdiction in view of the factual dispute arising out of above noted facts and circumstances.

This Court would also take notice of the fact that other dues of the petitioner have also been paid in favour of one Sanjay Kumar, who is declared to be son of the deceased, as per service book.

Writ petition is dismissed.
