ORAL ORDER

2 10-11-2022 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, learned counsel for the informant and learned A.P.P. for the State.

The petitioners apprehend their arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 457, 427, 323, 354, 354A, 379, 337 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The informant alleges that the accused persons including the petitioners with an intention to grab her ancestral property came to her house and assaulted her and her minor brother-in-law, further her husband lives in Delhi to earn livelihood.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners have antecedent of one case and the said case was also instituted by the present informant and have been falsely implicated in the present case, it is next submitted that the date of occurrence is 10.03.2022 and the FIR came to be instituted after a delay of more than 30 days i.e., 11.04.2022, without any plausible explanation which creates doubt with regard to the veracity of the allegation as alleged.

Learned A.P.P. for the State and learned counsel for the informant opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners but are not able to meet the submission of the learned counsel for the petitioners that there was an inordinate delay in instituting the FIR.
