Allegedly, the petitioner is said to have used to come in the mohalla of the informant and call her by telephone. He used to talk vulgar things and threaten to upload and viral her video on the porn site. He also sent some nude photographs of the informant and other girls and threatened to viral it on the social media. It has further been alleged that on 22-07-2021, the informant with her sister went to house of the petitioner to make complaint to his father but he along with his mother started abusing her and the petitioner pushed her down and tried to commit rape upon her. However, the sister of the informant saved her. It is also alleged that in the aforesaid incidence, she has sustained injury on her eyes.

The petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. As per allegation, the petitioner is alleged to have threatened the informant to upload her photographs on porn site. The petitioner is also alleged to have attempted to commit rape upon the victim. The allegation is denied by the petitioner. The petitioner is a student who is pursuing his studies in Hotel Management in AIIMS College, Durgapur. There was a marriage negotiation but it could not be finalized. Later on, for one reason or the other, the present case has been instituted.

petitioner.
