Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

Learned counsel for the petitioner undertakes to remove the defects, if any, within three weeks. In the eventuality of non-removal of defects within undertaken period, the office will place the matter before the Bench.

The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in a case registered for the offence punishable under Section 395 of the Indian Penal Code.

Petitioner is said to have entered in the house of the informant and tied her hand, leg and closed her eyes with scarf. She further alleged that the miscreants took away key of Godrej and took away cash of Rs. 1,20,000 and golden ornaments, Mangal Sutra, Nose Ring, Earring, neckless and two Samsung

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He submits that no incriminating article has been recovered from the possession of the petitioner.
