ORAL ORDER

2 15-06-2022 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned APP for the State.

Learned counsel for the petitioners undertakes to remove the defects as pointed out by the office within three weeks on resumption of physical mode, failing which the office is directed to place the matter before the Bench.

The petitioners are apprehending their arrest in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 341/ 323 /354/379/ 506/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per prosecution case, the petitioner and co-accused persons are alleged to have assaulted the father of the informant severely and the main allegation is against co-accused, namely, Deepak Prasad Sao @ Khalnaik, who assaulted the informant and her sister.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent and have committed no offence as alleged in the FIR and have falsely been implicated in this case. He further submits that there is general and omnibus allegation against the petitioners and the petitioners have no criminal antecedent as stated at para 3 of the bail petition.

Learned APP for the State vehemently opposed the prayer for bail petition.

The impugned order suggests that fracture present of right temporal wound was found on the person of injured, Khushbu Devi.

In the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the above named petitioners, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the court below within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of the order, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned C.J.M., Patna in connection with Agamkuan P.S. Case No. 465/2021, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
