CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PRABHAT KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

2 20-07-2022 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case registered for the offence under Sections 302, 201/34, 419 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per the prosecution case, the informant suspects that all the F.I.R. named accused including petitioners have committed the murder of her husband, due to the reason that accused persons were manufacturing country-made liquor at the bank of river, which was objected by her husband just two days prior to the occurrence and the accused had threatened him for dire consequences.

It is submitted on behalf of petitioners that petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case only on suspicion. Informant is not eye-witness of the occurrence and there is no other material to show complicity of these petitioners in the aforesaid crime. As a matter of fact, the deceased was a notorious criminal and might have been killed by some unknown person(s). petitioners have never indulged in manufacturing of illicit liquor or threatened the deceased prior to the occurrence.

However, learned A.P.P. for the State opposed the bail petition and submitted that ample evidence has come during course of investigation against these petitioners.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, the prayer for anticipatory bail of petitioners is rejected.
