Petitioner seeks anticipatory bail.

Learned Advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that the police complaint is a result of the previous relationship going sour. He submits that the petitioner complied with the order of imposition of costs passed by the Court. He submits that the petitioner also paid the costs as directed by the jurisdictional Court.

Learned Advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the statement recorded under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of the victim as also the medical report.

Considering the statement recorded under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of the victim and since the victim acknowledges the previous relationship to the extent of claiming that a marriage was registered, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a Bond of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioner shall meet the Investigating Officer as and when called for till the conclusion of the investigation and that the petitioner shall appear before the jurisdictional Court and pray for regular bail within four weeks from date.
