Learned advocate for the petitioner has prayed for correcting the typographical mistake in the name of the petitioner which is allowed and it has to be done in course of the day.

The order passed by this Court dated 18.02.2022 has been complied with and the petitioner has joined the school as was directed by this Court and has been allowed to sign the attendance register. As of now there is no problem in respect of working of the petitioner/teacher in the school.

On the basis of the submissions made by the parties, I dispose of this writ application without any costs.
