C.R.R. 264 of 2022

In the matter of:- Tapas Sur & ors.

(via video conference)

Mr. Angshuman Chakraborty
Mr. Shashanka Shekhar Saha
...for the petitioners

Mr. Arijit Ganguly
Mr. Suman De
...for the State

This is an application seeking an expeditious disposal of a proceeding in which a charge-sheet was submitted under Sections 21 (c) and 29 of the N.D.P.S. Act.

Let a copy of this application be served upon Mr. Arijit Ganguly and Mr. Suman De, learned advocates, who are present in Court today and who ordinarily appear on behalf of the State. Their engagement may be regularised in due course by the competent authority of the State.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners submits as follows. The petitioners are the accused in this case. They are in custody since 28.08.2020 the date on which the First Information Report was registered. A charge-sheet was submitted on 20.10.2020. The prosecution proposes to examine eight witnesses in this case. The charges were framed on 24.09.2021. Yet, till date not a single witness could be examined. The proceeding has remained pending for no fault of the present petitioner.

Learned counsel for the State submits that the State would not come in the way if a direction is passed to expedite the proceeding.

I have heard the submissions of the learned counsels appearing on behalf of the petitioners and the State and have perused the revision petition.

It appears that some delay has been occasioned in concluding the proceeding, especially considering the fact that the petitioners are in custody since 28.08.2020.

In view of the above and in the interest of justice, I request the learned trial Court to conclude the proceeding as expeditiously as possible without granting any unnecessary adjournment to any of the parties, preferably within a period of ten months from the resumption of normal functioning of the Court.

With these observations, the revisional application is disposed of.

Urgent photostat certified copies of this order may be delivered to the learned Advocates for the parties, if applied for, upon compliance of all formalities.
