In re: Salam Pandit

Heard the learned advocates appearing for the respective parties.

Having considered the materials on record including the injury report and bearing in mind, the nature of allegations in the light of the submissions made by the respective parties and in view of the fact that upon completion of investigation charge sheet has been submitted, we are of the opinion that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not necessary.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner will be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 with a further condition that the petitioner shall attend the learned court below on all the dates, as specified for hearing.

It is further directed that the petitioner shall not intimidate the witnesses or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever.

It is made clear that in the event the petitioner fails to comply with the aforesaid directions without any justifiable cause, the learned trial court would be at liberty to cancel his bail without any further
