... for the petitioner

Mr. Satyam Mukherjee, learned advocate appears for the petitioner.

Record shows that the notice of this application has not been served on the opposite party.

The petitioner by filing the present application under Article 227 of the Constitution of India has prayed for expeditious disposal of the applications under Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure preferred by the petitioner in connection with Misc. Case (Act VIII) No. 23 of 2014 and the proceeding itself being Misc. Case (Act VIII) No. 23 of 2014, pending before the learned Additional District Judge, 2nd Court at Barasat, North 24 Parganas.

The learned advocate for the petitioner submits that the learned Court below has been granting unnecessary adjournments and due to which, there is a delay in disposal of the case and such delay is causing hardship to the petitioner.

Having regard to the nature of relief claimed by the petitioner, being a prayer for expeditious disposal of the misc. case, I do not find any need to serve notice of the present application on the opposite party and it is not likely to cause any prejudice to the interest of the opposite party. Therefore, service of notice upon the opposite party is dispensed with.

The learned Additional District Judge, 2nd Court at Barasat, North 24 Parganas, is requested to dispose of the applications under Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure preferred by the petitioner in connection with Misc. Case (Act VIII) No. 23 of 2014, as expeditiously as possible and in any event, within a period of six months from the date of communication of this order, without granting any adjournment whatsoever to any of the parties.
