Sl. No. 49

Court No.13

B.M.

WPA 2126 of 2022

Nairit Retailer Pvt. Ltd. & Ors.

Vs.

The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Kum Kum Mukherjee
Mr. Sourojit Dasgupta ... for the petitioners

Mr. Suddhadev Adak ... for the State

Mr. Rudraman Bhattacharyya
Mr. Saptarshi Banerjee
Mr. Debangana Dey Nayek
Mr. Diksha Ghosh ... for the private respondents

The petitioners are aggrieved by the order dated 29th September, 2021 issued by the Sub Inspector, Detective Department (Special) of the Kolkata Police issued against the petitioners' complaint dated 19th August, 2021. In the said communication, the office of the Commissioner of Police has found no cognizable offence in the complaint of the writ petitioners.

The petitioners are also aggrieved by non-consideration of complaint and representation dated 26th November, 2021.

This court is of the view that since the petitioner has effective alternative remedy available under Section 156(3) of the Code of Criminal Procedure and/or Section 482 thereof, this court is not inclined to exercise discretionary jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

With the aforesaid observations, the writ petition is disposed of without any order of costs.
