IN THE HIGH COURT AT CALCUTTA
CRIMINAL REVISIONAL JURISDICTION

C.R.R. 263 of 2019

Sri Kalyan Krishna Nandi versus
Smt. Nita Nandi (Mani) & Anr.

In Re: An Application under Section 482 read with Section 401 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

Mr. Kalyan Krishna Nandi ... Petitioner (In Person).

Affidavit of service and supplementary affidavit filed in Court today be kept on record.

This revisional application was preferred by the petitioner apprehending that he may be manhandled or he may be implicated in a false case and on such apprehension, applications were taken out before the learned Magistrate and challenged before the learned sessions court.

The petitioner is granted liberty to approach the police authorities for protection if required. If an appropriate application is taken out before the learned Magistrate, the learned Magistrate would assess the requirement of the concerned account/Locker for which the application is made.

The learned Magistrate after assessing the requirement, would pass necessary order on the application if so advised and preferred by the petitioner who is appearing in person herein.

No order is made on the merits of the order so passed by the learned sessions court as prima facie the order so passed was on different set of circumstances as claimed by the petitioner.

Accordingly, the revisional application being CRR 263 of 2019 is dismissed with the aforesaid directions.

Interim order, if any, is hereby vacated.

All pending connected applications, if any, are consequently disposed of.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
