Petitioner seeks anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner lodged a police complaint against the family of the de facto complainant whereupon the present police case was lodged.

Learned advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the materials in the case diary including the injury report.

Considering the fact that there is a previous police compliant at the behest of the petitioner and considering the gravity of the offence and the involvement of the petitioner therein and considering the fact that police filed charge sheet, we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioner shall appear every day before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioner in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

Prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is allowed.
