C.O. 370 of 2022

Jharna Ghosh
Vs Aloke Chakraborty

Mr. Kaustav Bagchi,
Mr. Debayan Ghosh
Ms. Priti Kar ... For the petitioner.

A direction to secure expeditious disposal of the pending suit, instituted in the year 2018 with a prayer for eviction, mesne profits together with the other consequential reliefs, is the ultimate prayer in this revisional application.

As per submission disclosed by Mr. Kaustav Bagchi, learned advocate appearing for the petitioner, it appears that there is no pending interlocutory application awaiting decision to be rendered by the Court below, and the suit is appearing at the peremptory hearing stage.

In view of the nature of the order proposed to be made in this case, service of notice of this application upon the opposite party is considered to be not necessary.

Accordingly, service of notice of this application upon opposite party stands dispensed with.

Accordingly, learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 1st Court at Barrackpore in Title Suit No. 3 of 2018 is directed to ensure expeditious disposal of the pending suit, preferably within a period of 18 months from the date of communication of this order, but without granting unnecessary adjournments, unless it is extremely unavoidable.

While endeavouring such exercise, an opportunity of hearing to both the parties must be ensured.

With this observation and direction, the revisional application stands disposed of.
