Petitioners seek anticipatory bail.

Learned Advocate appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners were falsely implicated.

Learned Advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the contents in the case diary.

Considering the fact that there are previous police complaints lodged at the instance of the petitioner No.1 and considering the gravity of the offence and the involvement of the petitioners therein, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a Bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioner No.1 (Noor Alam Sekh) and petitioner No.2 (Rafikul Sekh) shall meet before the Investigating Officer once in a month till the conclusion of the investigation and the petitioner No.3 (Champa Bibi), petitioner No.4 (Rakiba Bibi), petitioner No.5 (Moumita Bibi alias Momita Bibi) and petitioner No.6 (Hafiza Bibi alias Dhameli Bibi) shall cooperate with the investigation and that the petitioners shall appear before the jurisdictional Court and pray for regular bail within four weeks from date.
