CRR 180 of 2015

Md. Mohabubar Ali & Ors.
Vs.
The State of West Bengal & Anr.

Mr. Anwar Hossain,
Ms. Manisha Sharma
... for the State.

The revisional application has been preferred in connection with Deganga Police Station case No. 433 of 2011 dated 01.8.2011 under Sections 498A/406/307/120B of the Indian Penal Code pending before the Learned Chief Judicial Magistrate at Barasat.

As none appears on behalf of the State, Mr. Anwar Hossain, learned advocate, who ordinarily appears for the State, is directed to appear in this matter and represent the State. His appointment may be regularized by the concerned authority.

I have considered the contentions advanced in the revisional application, which relates to false implication and the FIR being bad, illegal, arbitrary and mala fide. The phrase so used by the petitioners are subject matter of consideration of the Investigating Agency and this Court is not entitled to summarily deal with the same. I also find that there is application for condonation of delay under Section 5 of the Limitation Act, which was directed to be served upon the opposite parties.

Having regard to the passage of time, which has passed since 3.2.2015 when a Co-ordinate Bench was pleased to pass an order for service, I am of the opinion that no interference is called for.

Accordingly, CRR 180 of 2015 is dismissed.

All pending connected applications, if any, are consequently disposed of.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
