CRR 625 of 2022

Sri Suresh Prasad Singh
Vs.
Smt. Sunita Singh

Mr. P. N. Mishra
...for the opposite party

Item No.07

Heard & Judgment on: 03.11.2022

Bibek Chaudhuri, J.

The petitioner is the husband of the opposite party. The opposite party has filed an application under the Protection of Women against Domestic Violence Act praying for maintenance and other reliefs and the said proceeding is pending before the learned Judicial Magistrate, First Court at Howrah.

The petitioner has filed the instant revision praying for transferring the said proceeding being Misc. Case No.382 of 2019 to the First Court of the learned Judicial Magistrate at Barrackpore on the ground that he is a resident of Jagatddal within Barrackpore sub-division.

The petitioner is not represented by his learned advocate.

I have heard the learned advocate for the opposite party.

Having heard the learned advocate for the opposite party and on careful perusal of the averment made in the revisional application, I do not find any merit which may inspire this Court to allow the prayer made by the petitioner in the instant revision.

Accordingly, the revisional application is dismissed on merit.
